

Floyd County Title VI Non-Discrimination Policy Statement

Floyd County intends to provide equal opportunity and service to all of its citizens. As a recipient of federal funds, Floyd County conforms to Title VI and all related statutes, regulations, and directions, which provide that no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied benefits of, or subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance on the grounds of race, color, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, national origin, religion, income status or limited English proficiency. Floyd County further assures every effort will be made to ensure nondiscrimination in all of its programs and activities, regardless of whether those programs and activities are federally funded. In the event Floyd County distributes Federal aid funds to another entity, Floyd County will include Title VI language in all written agreements.

Pursuant to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, Floyd County will not exclude from participation in, deny the benefits of, or subject to discrimination any individual on the grounds of race, color or national origin.

Floyd County's effort to prevent discrimination are not limited to:

- The denial of services, financial aid, or other benefits provided under a program.
- Distinctions in the quality, quantity, or manner in which the benefit is provided.
- Segregation or separation of persons in any part of the program.
- Restriction in the enjoyment of any advantages, privileges, or other benefits provided to others.
- Different standards or requirements for participation.
- Methods of administration which directly or indirectly or through contractual relationships would defeat or impair the accomplishment of effective nondiscrimination.
- Discrimination in any activities or services related to a highway, infrastructure or facility built or repaired in whole or in part with Federal funds.
- Discrimination in any employment resulting from a program or services, the primary purpose of which is to provide employment.

The Title VI/ADA Coordinator for Floyd County shall be the following individual:

Justin Tackett
2524 Corydon Pike Suite 204
New Albany, IN 47150
